MISCELLANEOUS

The thirty-fourth session of the Oregon Conference was held at Newberg, Oregon, July 3 to 7, 1929. Bishop G. W. Griffith presided and conducted the business with marked ability and satisfaction to all. His addresses on the stewardship of the Christian were constructive and should yield returns both spiritual and financial to the church.

It was voted to raise 35 cents a member for conference missions. The following distribution was made of the money in that fund, on hand, for moving expenses: To the pastor to be appointed to Newberg, $15; to Woodburn, $15; to Gresham, $15; to Lacomb, $15; to Portland First Church, $35; to Ingram Island, $10; district elder, $15.

The following appropriations were recommended from the General Missions Fund: Ingram Island and Noraton, $50; Lacomb and Happy Home, $100; Damascus, $50; Falls City, $40; Portland, Alberta Church, $100; Gresham, $100; The Dalles, $100.

It was also voted to raise 30 cents a member for annual conference entertainment, and to raise 5 cents a member for the Sunday-school secretary, on the second Sunday in September.

W. N. Coffee was elected a representative to confer with other representatives of the coast conferences with a view to inviting the next session of the General Conference to the Pacific Coast.

MISCELLANEOUS

The fortieth session of the Southern California Annual Conference was held July 16-21. Bishop Griffith not being able to reach the conference at its first sitting, Rev. J. A. Watson presided by appointment of Bishop Griffith. Bishop Griffith arrived during the second sitting and presided with grace and ability. He was greatly appreciated by the conference.

The evangelists, Revs. A. L. Whitcomb and D. L. Fenwick, were at their best in preaching the gospel. Many sought the Lord and found Him.

About $6,000 was raised for all purposes. All were greatly encouraged to go forward. The camp meeting held in connection with the conference was marked by the presence of the Lord and the conviction that rested upon the large congregations.

MISCELLANEOUS

We were much disappointed in not having with us our Bishop Zahniser. Much prayer was offered for his speedy recovery and a telegram of sympathy was sent him. In his absence we were ably served by Rev. N. W. Fink, our Publishing Agent. His addresses and sermons were splendid.

A. A. Price was reported very ill and a substantial offering was taken and forwarded to him. Sister Abbie Headley, the splendid wife of our pioneer minister, passed to her eternal reward within the year, and a very fitting memorial service was held for her.

D. W. Wesley was continued as subscription agent for the Free Methodist and a vote of hearty cooperation was taken. It was learned that our conference was nearer "over the top" than any.

F. Lincicome gave a very good report of his work during the year. Slade Freer was elected conference evangelist to work under the direction of the Committee on Aggressive Evangelism. On Sunday morning an offering in cash and subscriptions amounting to over $1,000 was taken and turned to the credit of this committee.

Application from the general missions fund was made for the following appropriations: Byesville circuit, $50; Athens circuit, $50; Keifersville circuit. $100.

The committee on reforms gave a very excellent report which was ordered published in tract form and distributed throughout the conference.

A committee was appointed to memorialize the Executive Board with a view of having a supplement to the Free Methodist, in which papers and reports given at conventions and conferences may be published at the expense of the body offering the paper.

A few facts gathered from the reports of the pastors: The number of circuits that reported loss in membership is 21, while the number that reported a gain is 11. A net loss of 44 members and 47 probationers is noted and a net gain of 153 in enrolment in Sunday-schools. The conference reported a gain in missionary money raised from all sources of $1,088.39; a loss of 80 subscriptions to the Free Methodist, and a gain of 126 subscriptions to the Sunday School Worker; a loss of three parsonages and a decrease in value of all parsonages of $4,450, and a loss of four church buildings and a decrease in valuation of all churches of $10,400. The total amount paid to pastors above the amount so paid last year is $1.373.13.

MISCELLANEOUS

The sixty-fifth annual session of the Michigan Annual Conference, held at Spring Arbor, Jackson County, Michigan, was one of harmony and blessing from above. Bishop G. W. Griffith and his beloved companion were with us for the first time. Mrs. Griffith represented the Publishing House. Her talks to the W. M. S. were much appreciated as well as one given in the public missionary meeting Sunday afternoon. We sincerely hope she may be spared to make many such visits.

The addresses to the conference and the sermons Wednesday night and Sunday morning by Rev. Griffith made such impression because of the blessing and unction from on high that they will not be forgotten. It is very evident, that God has ordained Bishop Griffith for his work, which we pray may continue for many years.

The pastor, C. E. Ferguson, Dr. Smith and wife were abundant in labors in caring for the large company of visitors as well as members of the conference.

The church, which holds at least six hundred, was far too small to hold the congregation Sunday morning. We expect through the efforts of Dr. Smith, J. A. Kelly and the many pilgrims and friends to have a building in connection with the school another year, in which will be an auditorium of sufficient size to care for all who may desire to attend the conference.

A liberal amount of funds was raised for various purposes, including the school missions and $1,300 on the Detroit-Kalamazoo District parsonage.

Jessie E. Ragatz was with us for the missionary meeting Sunday afternoon and in her address gave us a clearer vision of the needs of the people in the Dominican Republic.

The W. M. S. reported $5,904 raised during the year.
Several ministers were with us from the East and North Michigan Conferences. Some of these visiting brethren preached during the conference and were so helped of the Lord that a goodly number of persons sought God, especially Sunday evening after A. L. Haywood had brought the message.

ON MEMOIRS

Rev. Hiram Montgomery was born April 17, 1863, at Tyrone, Ontario, and left Detroit, Michigan, for heaven, May 31, 1929. His sudden departure was a shock, but his desire to "die with the harness on" was granted. He served his God and the church with unusual zeal for over forty years, never missing a district meeting or roll call at annual conference. At the last annual conference he was again elected district elder. He worked till the last beam faded. He worked while the night was darkening. He ceasd only when his strength had failed till he could work no more. He was a member of the General Conference six times. He was a member of the Executive Committee and vice-president of the Board of Directors of the Free Methodist Publishing House.

ON MEMOIRS

STEDWELL.—The Rev. Anson Stedwell was born September 29, 1843, near Birmingham, Iowa, and passed triumphantly to his heavenly reward from his home at Woodburn, Iowa, August 11, 1929. He was laid to rest in the Woodburn Cemetery.

In 1854 he moved with his parents to Jefferson County, Iowa, near Fairfield. He was of the common people and knew the real hardships of early pioneer life.

He was brought up in an irreligious home but was receptive to the convicting, illuminating spirit and truth received, in its incipient beginnings, in the Sabbath-school. From his writings it appears he was converted in 1863, and farther on down the way was sanctified wholly. He experienced the divine call to preach the gospel. He was granted exhorter's license in the Methodist Episcopal Church and began preaching in the winter of 1868-9. A little later on he joined the Methodist conference on trial, having overcome much strong opposition.

Believing, experiencing and preaching the doctrines of salvation, as taught by the fathers of Methodism, when he came in contact with the Free Methodist Church he felt that he had surely found his people and, with all that it meant, cast in his lot with them. He was received into the Illinois Conference in full connection in 1872.

August 14, 1873, he was united in marriage with Miss Maggie Johnson, who survives him. She shared the toil and sacrifice of those early years of his ministry.

He was a charter member in the organization of the Iowa Conference. About the year 1888 he transferred to the Kansas Conference, serving in the pastorate within what was then known as the Nebraska District. In the organization of the Nebraska Conference in 1890 he was a charter member. Later he transferred to the West Iowa Conference, and some years later served in the West Kansas, Oklahoma, and Platte River Conferences. In the latter conference he took a superannuated relation. In 1918 he was again transferred to the West Iowa Conference, sustaining the relation of a superannuate to the time of his death. From this conference he was called to his final reward with the hosts triumphant.

Fairmont District—John MacDonald, District Elder, 43 Sheldon Avenue, Morgantown, West Virginia

C. W. Stamp, superannuated.

Uniontown and Cumberland.....

NOTE

We regret very much the fact that last year we omitted, unintentionally, to state that a memorial service was held during the session of conference for our beloved Brother T. R. Wayne. J. B. Easton conducted the service. Hymn No. 593 was sung, after which H. L. Speer offered prayer, William G. Long read a scripture lesson. Tributes were then given by W. W. Spiker, R. B. Campbell, R. A. Zahniser and J. B. Easton.

MISCELLANEOUS

The forty-sixth session of the East Michigan Conference was held in Bethel Park, the conference camp ground, West Flint, Michigan, August 6-11, Bishop George W. Griffith came as president of the conference for the first time and as a personal stranger to many. However his splendid management of the conference business, his addresses and sermons quickly endeared him to all.

It was decided to raise a sum equal to forty cents per member for conference missions, from which the following appropriations were made: Ithaca. $25; Dansville and Leslie, $25; Racy, Fergus and Brady, $25; Corunna, $25; Auburn Heights and Clawson, $15; Washington, Romeo and Leonard, $15; Harbor Beach, $25; Marine City, $20; Lum and Lapeer, $25; Mayville and Rich, $10; Coleman and Luman, $30; Highwood and Mt. Forrest, $20; Hockaday and Sherman, $45; Standish, $20; Fraser and Kawkawlin, $20; Cheboygan, $90;

Sherman, $40; Cheboygan, $20; Fraser and Kawkawiii, $20; Cheboygan, $90; Hillman and White School House, $90; Afton and Onaway, $40; Wolverine and Vanderbilt, $20; Clio, $20; Montrose, $20; Rose City, $40; Gaylord Mission, $70.

It was decided to request the following appropriations from the General Mission Fund: Dansville and Leslie, $30; Racy, Fergus and Brady, $30; Corunna, $25; Washington, Romeo and Leonard, $20; Harrbor Beach, $20; Matter City, $20; Lyrn and Larger $25; Hockaday, and Shormen $40. Chebrater rine City, $20; Lum and Lapeer, $25; Hockaday and Sherman, $40; Cheboygan, $75; Hillman and White School House, $50; Wolverine and Vanderbilt, $40;

Rose City, $25.

Each quarterly conference was directed to elect one to serve on the committee to arrange for the next session of the annual conference, and one to serve on the emergency fund committee. It was decided to raise at least $1.50 per member for Spring Arbor, and each pastor was instructed to raise at least 5 cents per member for the benefit of Robert Parker.

The treasurer of the Young People's Missionary Society reported $2,970.98 raised during the year, a loss of $38.14 from the year before.

The treasurer of the Woman's Missionary Society reported funds raised as follows: Conference offering, $267.24; St. Johns District, $1,662.91; Flint District, $2,259.03; Bay City District, $865.29; Port Huron District, $1,266.73;

an

Alpena District, $231.82. Total, $6,553.02, a gain of $1,781.92 over the previous year.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

ON MEMOIRS

During the past conference year three of our fellow workers in the Lord's vineyard have answered the final summons and gone from labor to reward.

The first to go was J. G. Anderson, who died at Bay City while making preparation to move to his new charge at Gladwin. Brother Anderson was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost; a strong preacher, a faithful pastor, a true friend and an earnest Christian.

The next to leave the scenes of time for eternity was our venerable brother, E. D. Hartley, who was a member of the East Michigan Conference for nearly forty-six years. For many years he was secretary of the conference and for a time conference Sunday-school secretary. He was a conscientious Christian, a good preacher, a great worker in the Sunday-school, and a pastor who watched over the flock of God as one who must give an account to the Chief Shepherd.

The next was J. H. McMillan, who passed away at the parsonage in Dansville, Michigan. Brother McMillan was one of our tried and true men who for twenty-eight years had gone about doing good. We believe that the desire of his life was granted, for he died on the field of battle. Brother McMillan believed in holiness, preached holiness, and we believe that he lived it. These brethren served the church with credit and were an honor to the church to whose vows they were faithful until death. Farewell, brethren; you have answered the last roll call at conference, but we believe when the roll is called up yonder you will be there to answer with joy.

We consider it proper at this time to mention the departure of H. Montgomery who was not a member of this conference at the time of his death but for many years had traveled districts and circuits with acceptability while a member of this conference.

We also would mention the death of the beloved wife of our fellow worker, H. Voorhess. For nearly fifty years she traveled with her husband. She was a devoted wife, an earnest Christian, and died in the faith, having washed her robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

MISCELLANEOUS

The thirty-fourth session of the West Ontario Annual Conference was held in the Free Methodist Church at Dunnville, Ontario, August 7-11, 1929. We regretted the absence of Bishop A. D. Zahniser on account of illness, but were much pleased to have his brother, A. H. M. Zahniser, of Greenville, Illinois, who very acceptably presided. He was efficient as president and his addresses and sermons endeared him to all. Rev. N. W. Fink, our Publishing Agent, was present and represented the Publishing House, and also preached once. We also welcomed the visit of Revs. C. J. Edwards and T. S. Simpson, members of the Genesee Conference.

On Sunday morning the indebtedness on the Dunnville church was raised and the church dedicated by the president. The local pastors, pilgrims and friends welcomed and royally entertained the conference. We congratulate them on the fine church building they have erected for the worship of God.

We were saddened by the departure of two of our members, Rev. R. G.

Evans, who passed away at his home in Ridgeway, Ontario, March 30, 1929, and Rev. J. W. Winans, who had labored very successfully quite a number of years in the Dominican Republic, passed away during this session of conference, August 10, 1929, in St. Joseph's Hospital, Hamilton, Ontario.

Rev. J. C. Gare was ordained deacon on Sabbath afternoon. The religious services were very evangelistic and splendid altar services were held. The offerings and subscriptions were very liberal, amounting to $3,700.00.

The order and amount of the respective claims are as follows: General Missions, Bishops' Salaries, Conference Claimants, Church Extension, Church and Parsonage Aid, Permanent Fund, General Conference Delegates' Expenses, General Conference Entertainment, Conference Missions (50 cents), Annual Conference Entertainment (20 cents).

The conference recommends and strongly urges the establishment of the budget system on all of our circuits. We must ask greater punctuality on the part of pastors and treasurers in sending in the claims to the conference treasurer. He is expected to close his books ten days previous to the opening of the next session. Let us all cooperate in this matter and see to it that all claims are sent in to the conference treasurer just as early in the year as possible. Rev. John E. Parry is the conference treasurer, and his address is 2432 W. Monroe Street, Chicago, Illinois.

CONFERENCE SECRETARY

E. A. Tapper, 604 Windom Street, Peoria, Illinois, to whom all communications pertaining to the conference should be addressed.

AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH AND MINISTERIAL RECORD

By conference order, all our ministers are requested to send in to the secretary carefully prepared and accurate data pertaining to their life and ministerial labors, giving specific dates and information for use in the compilation of The Record. If you have not already done so, do so now,

PREACHERS' SHORT COURSE

The conference endorses the Bible Conference and Preachers' Short Course to be held at Greenville, Illinois, in the spring of 1930. It will be so arranged as not to conflict with special Passion Week services, which may be held on some of our circuits. Special attention of societies and official boards. to the previous recommendation of the conference, that they assist the preachers in this matter, by granting them leave of absence on that Sunday and such financial assistance as they may be able to render.

MISCELLANEOUS

The Illinois Conference convened in the seventieth annual session on the Chicago District camp ground at Downers Grove, Illinois, August 21, 1929. Bishop George W. Griffith, of Los Angeles, California, presided in his able and characteristic manner and the business of the conference was dispatched with alacrity. His daily addresses to the conference and his sermon on Sunday morning were masterly indeed and were delivered in the power of the Holy Spirit. This conference was held in connection with the Chicago District camp meeting, presided over by District Elder E. G. Cryer. Rev. Elmer E. McKay, of Greenville, Illinois, was the special evangelist for the occasion and gave the trumpet no uncertain sound. The ministry of this heroic son of thunder was forceful, clear and intensely spiritual, and many prayed through to victory. Rev. June B. Horning was present, filling her usual place, until laid aside by affliction. A. H. Fleming and S. V. Kline supervised the Young People's work. Mrs. L. B. Griffith ably represented the Publishing House. Rev. William B. Olmstead delivered a fresh and stirring missionary address on Friday evening. Rev. Guy C. Williams, of the Pittsburgh Conference, united with us again, by transfer. A number of visiting brethren were present from time to time. Revs. F. W. Caulkins, E. G. Cryer and F. S. Parks were elected district elders. The dining hall was under the management of Rev. John R. Klein, who ably provided the temporal necessities.

The following appropriations were asked of the General Missionary Board: Belvidere, $50; Elgin, $50; Davenport, $25; Elgin District, $75; Kewanee, $50.

IN MEMORIAM

Rev. John Harvey, son of Richard and Catherine Harvey, was born at Altarmun, Cornwall, England, August 14, 1854, and passed suddenly to his heavenly home from Tremont, Illinois, May 11, 1929. He was wonderfully converted when twelve years of age, while in attendance upon an ordinary prayer meeting in the Wesleyan Church, and with the exception of some two weeks, while struggling under the burden of his call to preach the gospel, for some sixty-three years he walked the thoroughfare of time in the sublime consciousness of rightness with his God and the magnificent splendor and spiritual luminosity of an unclouded day.

December 25, 1876, he was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Ann Thomas, of Sheffield, Illinois. To this union were born eight children, five of whom, together with their mother, preceded him in death. October 11, 1906, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Davison, of Farmington, Illinois, who remains to mourn the loss of a true, faithful, Christian husband.

Brother Harvey joined the Illinois Conference on trial at Crystal Lake, Illinois, in September, 1887, Bishop E. P. Hart presiding. He was admitted into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop B. T. Roberts, September 15, 1889, at Saint Charles, Illinois. He was ordained elder by Bishop G. W. Coleman at Morris, Illinois, September 20, 1891. He served the following charges as pastor: Kewanee, Peoria, East Peoria, Pekin, Sycamore, Crystal Lake and Woodstock, Elgin, Dearborn Street, Chicago; Harvey, First Church, Chicago; Rock Island, Saint Charles, Melrose Park, and Rockford. He served one year as manager of the Chicago Industrial Home for Children. No more painstaking and indefatigable worker has the Illinois Conference known than John Harvey. Until his health failed he was everlastingly at it and even when it had, it was hard to keep him from it. With the psalmist it could be said of him, "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up."

While pastor at Rockford, Illinois, his last charge, when for years our work had been tremendously handicapped through lack of a suitable place in which to worship, with his characteristic zeal and seemingly almost endless energy, he went to work and succeeded in building a commodious and beautiful brick church. The strenuosity of his labors in this enterprise, added to his heavy pastoral duties, proved too much and his health gave way, incapacitating him for continued pulpit ministrations. Soon after retirement from active circuit work he became president of the East Peoria Relief Association, and as supervisor of Fondulac township was very active in this work. In addition he served eight years as truant officer for the East Peoria public schools.

The funeral services in the East Peoria Free Methodist Church were in charge of District Elder F. S. Parks, who was assisted by Pastor A. H. Fleming, Revs. F. W. Caulkins, W. J. Bone, F. C. Craine and E. A. Tapper. In addition to these, Revs. D. L. Lower, G. C. Mills, A. F. Shockey and H. O. Inch were present. On this occasion the schools were closed and the church was utterly inadequate to hold the people who assembled. He was laid to rest in Fondulac cemetery.

A memorial service was held during conference, the principal address being given by Rev. H. O. Hubbard, who joined the conference with him.

He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his bereaved wife, three children, Mrs. Eliza Kiel, Mrs. Florence Cusac and Clarence Harvey, all of East Peoria, Illinois; three brothers and one sister, Richard, Thomas and Elizabeth, of Cornwall, England, and Rev. James H., of East Peoria, and a number of nephews, nieces, grandchildren and other relatives.

Farewell, our Brother Harvey, till that glorious morning when the shadows shall flee away.

- Where and when shall our next conference be held? The place to be left to a committee of three, W. S. Ballenger, L. S. Eberly and Paul Hegstead. Time as near the first Wednesday in October, 1930, as may be consistent with the plans of the bishops.

MISCELLANEOUS

The thirty-second session of the North Dakota Conference was held at Valley City, North Dakota, September 25-29, 1929. We were favored in having with us our esteemed Bishop Pearce who in his usual way very ably conducted the business of the conference. His sermons and addresses to the conference were greatly appreciated. There was harmony, love, and fellowship throughout the entire session. The evangelistic services were not without results. Six came to the altar at the close of Bishop Pearce's sermon Sunday morning. We received a promising young man into the conference on trial and a very able minister from the Church of the Nazarene. The appointments were generally well received and we enter upon the conference year determined to drive the battle to the gates.

IN MEMORIAM

Walter Ashbel Sellew was born at Gowanda, New York, on February 27, 1844, the son of Ashbel and Jane Tucker Sellew. He attended the public schools in Gowanda, completing the course offered there, which corresponded to the present grade school system. For three years he studied at Fredonia Academy, entering Oberlin College in 1861. At the end of two years, when the Civil War broke out, he left Oberlin, too young to enlist in the army without his parents' consent. All but three of the members of his class went to war, and the college was practically closed for lack of students.

For a year Brother Sellew attended business college in Buffalo and in 1864 entered Dartmouth College at Hanover, New Hampshire, as a junior. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Dartmouth in 1866 and in 1869 took his master's degree there. He was elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa.

Immediately after graduating he returned to Gowanda and studied law for a year, abandoning his law course to enter the employ of his father on salary, in the firm of Sellew and Poppell, manufacturers of farm implements.

In June, 1873, he married Jennie Peters, of Mechanicsville, New York, her death occurring in 1895. In 1872 he was ordained a minister and in 1873 began his ministerial career as a supply pastor in Gowanda, Collins Center, North Collins and Leon. In 1874 he was received as a regular clergyman by the Genesee Conference of the Free Methodist Church and was sent to Tonawanda to preach. There he stayed a year at a salary of $278. His next charge was at Rochester.

The Free Methodist Church sent Brother Sellew to Spring Arbor, Michigan, in 1876, to take charge of the Spring Arbor Seminary. Two years later he was transferred to a church in Dunkirk, at the same time taking over part of the responsibility of running the business of Sellew and Poppell, one of the members of the firm. While filling his pastorate in Dunkirk for seven years, Bishop Sellew preached in various near-by towns, particularly in Forestville and Fredonia.

In 1884, Brother Sellew established and took charge of the Gerry Seminary, a co-educational school in Gerry, New York. He was principal of the school for four years, finally turning the institution over to another man when he felt that his work was in the ministry rather than in educational institutions. His next pastorate was at Alleghany, where he stayed during 1888 and 1889. In 1890 he was called to Buffalo and in 1891 was elected a district elder of the church. From 1891 to 1892 he was district elder of the Bradford District, from 1893 to 1895, elder of the Oil City District, and from 1896 to 1897 of the Pittsburgh District. In March, 1897, two years after the death of his first wife, he married Rebecca E. Muse, of Oil City, Pennsylvania, who survives him. Sister Sellew has been his constant companion on his travels and has contributed greatly to the success of his widespread ministry.

The church transferred Brother Sellew to the Bradford District again in 1897 as district elder and in 1898 he was elected bishop, a position which he had held since that time. The office of bishop in the Free Methodist Church, unlike that in some other churches where bishops are chosen for life, is elective, filled every four years. Bishop Sellew had been reelected to the office each four years since 1898, or for eight consecutive terms. His last reelection for a four-year term was in 1927,

During the last thirty years the bishop had averaged 25,000 miles of travel each year. His work had taken him to all parts of the United States and around the world.

In 1906 the Free Methodist Church sent the bishop around the world on an official tour of the various countries to organize the church's foreign mission work. He visited all the foreign missionary stations of the Free Methodist Church. The trip took a year and three months. In 1910 he was again sent abroad, this time to China and Japan, to investigate missionary conditions in these countries following the great famine there. With the exception of these two long trips, most of the bishop's traveling had been in the United States and Canada.

He wrote one book, "The Life of Clara Leffingwell," which is also a history of the Boxer Rebellion. Clara Leffingwell was a missionary who had various unusual experiences during the rebellion. The bishop also wrote a pamphlet on the ordination of women ministers in the Free Methodist Church. For twenty-five years there had been controversy in the church on this subject. The bishop's pamphlet, prepared after a year of research, was so favorably received that the church finally consented to the ordination of women ministers. Recently he published a pamphlet entitled, "Obligations of Civilization to Christianity." This is an exceedingly able work of sixty-four pages.

Bishop Sellew was treasurer of the Home for the Aged and Orphanage at Gerry; treasurer of the A. M. Chesbrough Seminary at North Chili, near Rochester; treasurer of the Free Methodist Publishing House of North America at Chicago, and president of the trustees of the Free Methodist Church of North America.

Since being ordained in the ministry in 1872, Bishop Sellew served as pastor successively at Tonawanda, Rochester, Spring Arbor, Michigan; Dunkirk, Gerry, Alleghany, Buffalo, and from 1887 to 1898 was district elder of the Chautauqua, Alleghany, Buffalo, Oil City, Bradford and Pittsburgh Districts. He was elected a bishop on October 15, 1898. Bishop Sellew celebrated his fiftieth year in the ministry about five years ago and at that time he was the honor guest at a testimonial service held at the Free Methodist Church. Among the speakers were Samuel A. Carlson, then mayor of Jamestown; Bishop William Pearce, Rev. Dr. T. R. Courtice, Major Fred W. Hyde, O. Nelson Rushworth and J. Delevan Curtiss.

Bishop Sellew is survived by his wife, Rebecca Muse Sellew; two daughters, Mrs. Ada Layman, of Brookfield, Illinois, and Mrs. Cora DeWitt, of Buffalo, and three grandchildren, Dorothy DeWitt, Sellew DeWitt and Virginia

DeWitt, all of Buffalo.

The funeral services were held in the Jamestown Free Methodist Church, on Saturday, January 19, in charge of Rev. Mendal B. Miller, assisted by the following preachers: N. W. Fink, M. S. Benn, W. B. Olmstead, G. W. Garlock, B. N. Miner, A. J. Hill, W. G. Worboys and O. C. Thrall. The body was taken to North Chili, New York, for burial. The services there were held in the Free Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. B. N. Miner, assisted by the following preachers: H. W. Hodge, J. H. Wheeler, Dr. Backenstoe, M. S. Babcock, Forman Lincicome, H. E. Barnes and R. R. Blews. The man of God, bishop of the church, shepherd of the flock, brother beloved, our friend is gone. Farewell, Brother Sellew, "until the day break and the shadows flee away."

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee held its annual session at the Publishing House, Chicago, Illinois, October 22-24, 1929.

The following members were present; W. Pearce, G. W. Griffith, M. B. Miller, D. W. Wesley, H. E. Perigo, E. C. Lindley, W. N. Coffee, H. Hoyt, J. M. Daniels, G. A. Lees, A. G. Ball, C. A. Lowell. Bishop W. Pearce was elected president.

The following were elected as a Board of Directors of the Publishing House: W. Pearce, A. D. Zahniser, M. B. Miller, J. M. Daniels, H. Hoyt, D.

W. Wesley, H. E. Perigo.

It was ordered that a sum equal to twenty cents a member be raised the coming year for the bishops' salary fund.

A communication was read from Bishop A. D. Zahniser, stating that personal illness prevented his attendance on this occasion. The bishops were appointed to write to Bishop Zahniser and express the sympathy of the Committee for him in his affliction.

The report of the Board of Directors of the Publishing House was read. A paper was read which had been adopted by the Columbia River Conference in reply to a communication sent by the Executive Committee, last October, calling attention to the violation of the Discipline by some of its societies by the use of instrumental music in their public services.

A paper adopted by the General Missionary Board concerning a resolution sent to that Board by the Columbia River Conference relating to the use of instrumental music in some mission fields was read.

A communication from the California Conference on the music question was read.

A paper from the Wabash Conference on the music question was presented.

All the papers on this question were referred to a committee consisting of G. W. Griffith, E. C. Lindley and A. G. Ball.

W. Pearce was elected a member of the Committee on General Finance and Administration, in place of Bishop Sellew, deceased.

W. Pearce was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Bishop Sellew in the committee appointed by General Conference on the transfer of decisions by the bishops to the proper place in the Discipline.

A service was held jointly by the Executive Committee and the General Missionary Board in memory of Bishop W. A. Sellew, Rev. H. Montgomery and Rev. J. W. Winans, who had been called home during the past few months.

Bishop A. D. Zahniser was elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees of General Conference caused by the passing of Bishop W. A. Sellew.

John Watterson, nominated by the Trustees of Wessington Springs Junior College, was elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Education caused by the removal of W. A. Harden out of Wessington Springs Junior College territory.

The following paper was presented from the Young People's Society:

"We, the Young People's Council, in session this 21st day of October, 1929, do hereby wish to endorse the movement acted upon by the Association of College Presidents and by the General Sunday School Board for a Young People's Conference or convention to be held at the time and place of the next General Conference, plans and publicity to be left with such committee as you shall appoint or suggest the other boards appoint."

On motion, the request was granted.

The following communication from the Board of Education was read:

"The Association of Schoolmen presented the following:

"'We request the Executive Committee to arrange for a church-wide Young People's convention at the time and place of the next General Conference and that the same be in charge of a committee representing all of the agencies interested in our youth.'

"On motion, the Board of Education approved the request and instructed the secretary to see that the matter was brought to the attention of the Executive Committee."

On motion, the paper was received.

On motion, the request was granted and the Young People's Council was instructed to prepare the program.

At the request of the Young People's Council Article I of the Constitution of the Young People's Council was amended so as to read: "The superintendent shall be elected by ballot by the official board, at its first meeting after the annual conference. The pastor may nominate."

The editor of the Sunday School Worker was requested to add a department of teachers' helps in the Worker.

Application was made to the Church and Parsonage Aid Society for aid for the church at Ladysmith, Wisconsin, for $12.50; for the church at Florida City, Florida, for $50; and for the church at Laclede, Illinois, for $20, because of damage done to church property by storm. The request in each case was granted.

W. Pearce was elected to fill vacancy on the committee to consider applications for aid from the Church and Parsonage Aid Society during the interim of the annual meetings of the Society, which vacancy was caused by the death of Bishop Sellew.

Rev. S. H. Porterfield was elected to fill the vacancy in the Executive Committee caused by the passing of Rev. H. Montgomery.

The apportionment for the bishops' salaries fund was fixed at a sum equal to twenty cents a member for the coming year.

The following report of the Committee on Instrumental Music was adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF THE MUSIC QUESTION

After considering the conference paper received from the Columbia River Conference, the request of Rev. A. Youngren in behalf of the Berkeley Japanese Church, and the requests for interpretations of Discipline from the Wabash Conference, and the General Missionary Board, we, the Executive Committee of the Free Methodist Church, assembled in regular session at Chicago, Illinois, this 22nd day of October, 1929, hereby formulate our reply in the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas: From the first organization of the church the use of instruments of music in public worship in Free Methodist churches has been prohibited: and

WHEREAS: Several General Conferences have considered the question of a modification of this prohibition and in each instance have retained the rule without change: and

WHEREAS, A long time ago an impression took root in the church, no one knows how, that a mission, presumably a city mission, could use an instrument of music in its services without violation of Discipline because it was a mission and not a regularly functioning church; and

WHEREAS, This unbudded seedling has grown until its spreading branches seem to offer protection to a variety of so-called mission churches, and

Whereas, This impression has grown until it has come to be accepted as a fact, and is so accepted by man today; and

WHEREAS, In the growth and development of our denominational activities, at home and abroad, especially in our home mission work, apparently protected by this unfounded impression enlarged into fact, instruments of music have come to be used on the ground that it was mission work and hence permissible; and

Whereas, This situation appears to present a contradiction of procedure in our rules of worship; and

WHEREAS, Some regularly organized churches among us are wilfully violating the Discipline by installing instruments of music and defending their course by illogically declaring instruments are used in missions by permission of the church, therefore they can not be justly penalized for using them; therefore.

Resolved. 1. That we hereby reaffirm the position our church has taken from the beginning that instruments of music are forbidden in public worship in our churches.

That this prohibition applies to church weddings, funerals, Sundayschools and all public services of a Free Methodist society, whether worshipping in a church or rented building or hall used as a house of worship.

That by a Free Methodist society is meant any society organized under the Discipline through which membership in the church is maintained by payment of conference claims, functioning in harmony with the Disciplinary provisions for a society, electing a delegate to the annual conference, etc.

4. That any society, thus organized and functioning, which installs an instrument of music in its public worship, is guilty of violation of Discipline.

5. That this prohibition applies to the Berkeley Japanese Church and to the Free Methodist churches in Japan because they are thus organized and functioning, also to every so-called mission which includes a membership organized into a working Free Methodist society entitled to a delegate having a voice and vote in the annual conference.

That in the case of home mission churches and stations, functioning under direct supervision of the General Missionary Board and having no voice in the ecclesiastical councils of the church, but operating under the impression, developed into a fact in the thinking of many, that missions are exempt from this prohibition, we hereby appeal to the General Conference to provide proper legislation covering this problem.

That we commend the missionary secretary, Rev. W. B. Olmstead, for his efforts and success in handling this problem in the Japan Conference and recommend that all of the mission stations and churches under the supervision of the General Missionary Board still using instruments be requested to reduce the use of said instruments to a minimum until this point is settled by the General Conference.

The committee on the entertainment of the next General Conference reported as to the following requirements:

Entertainment of delegates to General Conference; all General Conference officers; delegates and officers of the W. M. S. and the fraternal delegates.

2. An auditorium capacity of 1,000, twelve committee rooms; an auditorium for the W. M. S., and an auditorium for the Y. P. S. and Y. P. M. S. conventions.

It was decided not to publish a Daily in connection with the next session of General Conference.

Rev. R. Blews was elected a corresponding editor of the Free Methodist.

in place of Bishop W. A. Sellew, deceased.

Bishop G. W. Griffith was elected to fill the vacancy in the committee appointed at the last annual meeting of the Executive Committee to visit the society at Petersburg, Indiana, and confer with them on the music question, said vacancy having been caused by the death of Bishop Sellew.

On motion, it was decided that the conferences be permitted to apply onehalf of the money raised for the Emergency Fund for Superannuates on the amount apportioned to be raised for the conference claimants.

Bishop G. W. Griffith was appointed to prepare for the Free Methodist whatever articles are needed in the interest of the Emergency Fund.

GENERAL SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

BISHOP A. D. ZAHNISER, President REV. C. H. WATSON REV. B. J. VINCENT, Vice-president REV. E. P. BOYD REV. J. H. WHITEMAN, General Secretary REV. JUNE B. HORNING

PROF. E. A. HOLTWICK, A. L. DEMUND Recording Secretary G. A. LEES

The third session of the General Sunday School Board for the quadrennium 1927-1931 convened at the Publishing House, Chicago, Illinois, October 19, 1929, at 1:30 p.m. Two sittings were held, presided over by Vice-president B. J. Vincent, inasmuch as the president, Bishop A. D. Zahniser, was unable to be present because of illness.

A letter of sympathy and a floral tribute were sent to Bishop Zahniser. The General Secretary and the General Treasurer each rendered his annual report.

The General Secretary was authorized to launch an intensive campaign for the increased circulation of the Sunday School Worker. He was also authorized to draw upon the treasury of the Board in order to supply suitable speakers for Sunday-school promotion work.

The Board appropriated the necessary sum to send the General Secretary to the next session of the International Sunday School Council of Religious Education, to be held at Toronto, Canada, next summer.

Upon the request of the editor of Sunday-school literature a curriculum committee was provided to act in an advisory capacity to the editor. The editor was also authorized to make a survey of the church, before the next General Conference, to determine the extent to which our publications are being used in our schools.

The Board petitioned the Executive Committee of the church to provide a publication which shall be distinctively for the Home Department.

A committee was provided to cooperate with similar committees from other bodies of the church directly connected with young people's problems, to plan for a Young People's Convention to be held in connection with the next session of General Conference.

Balance October 1, 1929.....

The amount of $200.00 of the income from the Megatt Scholarship Fund was dispursed to students from the patronizing territory of the old Evansville Seminary. This amount is to be disbursed each year in accordance with the rules of the Student Loan Fund. The amount appropriated to the student loan this year is $1,180.00.

The seat of W. A. Harden, Wessington Springs' representative on the Board, was declared vacant on account of his moving from the territory which he represented. The name of John Watterson was presented to the Executive Committee by the Wessington Springs board of trustees and he was duly elected to fill the said vacancy.

The Board passed a resolution requesting the Executive Committee to arrange for a church-wide young people's convention at the next General Conference, with their pledge to cooperate.

BOARD OF CHARITIES AND BENEVOLENCES

BISHOP WILLIAM PEARCE, President REV. W. B. OLMSTEAD, Secretary
The Board of Charities and Benevolences met for their annual meeting in the General Missionary Board room in the Publishing House, 1132 Washington

Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, October 18, 1929, at 2 p. m.

The following members were present: William Pearce, W. B. Olmstead, George W. Griffith, A. J. Hill, Grant C. Woods, R. A. Zahniser, A. J. Stevens, Peter White, G. W. Saunders, A. C. Enderline, W. A. Harden, B. H. Gaddis, J. S. MacGeary, J. Whitehead, Carrie T. Burritt, Ella L. MacGeary, Mary L. Coleman, Alma L. Miller, Mrs. S. V. Coe, C. E. Maxwell.

M. B. Miller, president of the board of trustees of the Gerry Homes, reported for the Homes and stated that all accounts had been audited by a committee, of which A. J. Hill was chairman, and were found correct.

C. E. Maxwell, superintendent of the Old People's Rest Home and the Chicago Industrial Home for Children, both at Woodstock, Illinois, made report for these institutions. He reported that the accounts of the Industrial Home had been audited by a public accountant and reported correct.

F. D. Brooke reported as treasurer of the Old People's Rest Home at Woodstock, Illinois.

Mrs. S. V. Coe, superintendent of the Life Line Orphans' Home at Kansas City, Kansas, reported for the work. A copy of the treasurer's report was handed to each member of the Board. All accounts had been audited by Prof. H. Hendrickson and reported as correct.

Mary L. Coleman was requested to write an article appealing for Easter offerings for the Homes, to be published in the Free Methodist.

Alma L. Miller was requested to write a like appeal for the Missionary Tidings, and the editor of the Sunday School Worker was requested to make such an appeal through his paper.

The bishops who shall hold the conferences in the territory of the various Homes were requested to visit them during the ensuing year.

The following directors were elected for the year: William Pearce, W. B. Olmstead, C. E. Maxwell, B. H. Gaddis, Mrs. S. V. Coe, Mary L. Coleman, A. J. Hill.

The Board adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock p. m. on Friday, October 17, 1930,

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

The General Missionary Board met for its annual meeting at 1132 Washington Boulevard, Chicago, on Thursday, October 17, at 2 p. m. The president, Bishop William Pearce, presided. There were ten sittings, the last one closing at 11:30 a. m. on the 23rd. The entire meeting was one of harmony, with the manifest blessing of the Lord.

The missionary secretary presented his annual report for both the foreign and home work. A full presentation was made of every field. Reports were given by the field secretary, Rev. F. L. Baker, and by the general treasurer, Rev. N. W. Fink. The following persons were present and were introduced to the Board: Rev. B. H. Pearson, superintendent of Mexican Missions in Southern California, and Mrs. Pearson; and Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Johnson and Miss Jessie E. Ragatz, from the Dominican Republic. Each spoke a few words of greeting

Superintendents were elected as follows: China, Rev. E. P. Ashcraft; Dominican Republic, Rev. George W. Mills; the Transvaal, Africa, Rev. Jules Ryff: Mexican Missions in California and Arizona, Rev. B. H. Pearson; Japanese Missions in Southern California, Rev. C. J. Burnett; Japanese Missions in Northern California, Oregon and Washington, Rev. August Youngren; Japanese Missions in British Columbia, Rev. A. E. Warren; Italian work, Melrose Park, Illinois, Rev. Newton W. Fink; Kentucky Mountain Mission, Elizabeth O'Connor.

The following treasurers were elected: Portuguese East Africa and the Transvaal, Rev. Jules Ryff; India, W. N. Thuline; China, Miss Bernice M. Wood: Japan, Miss Ruth Mylander; Dominican Republic, Miss Eva L. Whiffen : Southern California, Mrs. Clara R. Freeland : California, Rev. C. L. Manning; Melrose Park, Illinois, N. W. Fink; Kentucky Mission, Elizabeth O'Connor.

The following general missionaries reported: Mrs. Rebecca E. Sellew, Mrs. Harriet M. Baker, Mrs. Carrie T. Burritt, Mrs. Emma L. Hogue, Mrs. Minnie L. Olmstead and Mrs. Lillian B. Griffith.

The reports of General Conference Evangelists A. L. Whitcomb and Charles V. Fairbairn were read by the secretary. General Conference Evangelists R. B. Campbell and E. Ballenger were present and reported.

Many visitors were in attendance from time to time.

The following directors were elected by ballot: William Pearce, George W. Griffith, W. B. Olmstead, Mrs. Carrie T. Burritt, Peter White, A. C. Enderlin, G. W. Saunders.

Executive committees for the various fields were elected as follows: Portuguese East Africa, R. J. Jacobs, Mae P. Armstrong, Adelaide Latshaw; India, Rolland N. Davis, F. A. Puffer, Evangeline Thuline; Japan, Howard H. Wagner, Ruth Mylander, F. F. Warren; California Conference, Home Missions, J. S. MacGeary, C. L. Manning, Mrs. Mabel Cochrane; Southern California, Home Missions, A. G. Ball, Clara R. Freeland, George B. French.

The Board voted that a week of self-denial for foreign missions should be observed beginning March 24, and closing Sunday, March 30, 1930.

The Board authorized the organization of a Provisional Conference in the Dominican Republic.

The industrial work being carried on by our missionaries in India was ap-

The Executive Committee and the Missionary Board united in a memorial service for Bishop Walter A. Sellew, Rev. Hiram Montgomery and Rev. J. W.

Miss Ila M. Gunsolus, of Franklinville, New York, was accepted as a missionary for South Africa and her outgoing was left with the missionary secretary. Miss Florence Hilborn, who is now laboring in Mexico, was accepted as a home missionary.

Furloughs were granted to Miss Daisy E. Frederick, Miss Elizabeth Moreland, Rev. and Mrs. George W. Mills and Miss Helen O. Abrams.

Rev. T. Kawabe was appointed to hold the Japan Conference in the spring of 1930.

The constitution for the provisional conference recently organized in China by the missionary secretary was approved.

Indorsement was given to the kindergarten work in Japan which was started during the missionary secretary's visit to that country.

The Board gave due consideration to the return of missionaries who are now at home on furlough, to their fields, but as decisions in many cases are subject to conditions on the field, the finances of the Board, health conditions, etc., definite action was left with the missionary secretary.

A missionary residence was ordered built on the new property which has been purchased in Portuguese East Africa.

The missionary secretary was instructed to secure two men doctors, one for our China field and one for our Portuguese East Africa field.

The Board passed the following resolution: "Inasmuch as missionaries from different fields from time to time have launched missionary enterprises without authority from the Board and have solicited funds for the same, be it resolved that we hereby strongly disapprove of such procedure and would instruct all our missionaries, both home and foreign, to bring such matters before the missionary secretary or the Board for consideration before any action is taken."

In the ninth sitting Bishop William Pearce offered his resignation as president of the Board on account of his election as president of the Executive Committee. His resignation was accepted and Bishop G. W. Griffith was elected president of the Board.

Appropriations were made for foreign and home missions amounting to $168,545.

The time of the next annual meeting of the Missionary Board was fixed for Thursday, October 16, 1930, at 2 p. m.

MISSIONARY SECRETARY'S REPORT

Once more the time has come to make a report of our missionary activities during the past year. On some fields there has been sickness and death, but at the present time, with two or three exceptions, our missionaries are well. We have great reason to give thanks to God for His preserving care and for the blessings received.

JAPAN

In harmony with the action of the Board one year ago the trip was made to Japan and China. I left San Francisco on February 13, arriving in Japan on March 2. Two weeks were spent visiting the churches before the annual conference was held.

At present we have six missionaries in Japan. Rev. and Mrs. Wagner are located at Kobe, in the mission house erected five years ago. Brother Wagner is the missionary in charge of the Kobe and Osaka Districts. Rev. and Mrs. Frank F. Warren live in the mission house at Sumoto, Awaji. Brother Warren is the missionary in charge of the Awaji District which embraces the entire island. This island is thirty miles long and has an average width of seven miles, thus containing two hundred ten square miles. There are on the island two hundred ten thousand people and it is believed that the number is increasing. It will thus be seen that for a country district with one thousand to the square mile it is probably as densely populated as any similar portion of the Miss Mylander and Miss Pickens live in the mission house located on the seminary campus in Osaka. They have a full program and are doing effective work. Our missionaries in Japan have a passion for souls and are devoted to their work. They have a great love for the Japanese people and every possible effort is being put forth to bring about revivals and develop and establish the church.

Our Japanese preachers are the best representatives of their class that Japan can produce. They are educated, talented, devoted and deeply spiritual, and are succeeding in their ministry in a remarkable manner. At the recent conference twenty-four Japanese preachers, including women, were appointed to circuits or evangelistic work. They have an aggressive spirit and revivals are constantly being held, not only in the regular places of worship, but evangelistic campaigns are carried on in tents and in halls rented for the purpose. A great opportunity is offered for work among the children. Usually the size of the building places the only limit on the number of children who attend.

The work of the conference goes forward smoothly and efficiently. The Japanese district elders hold the quarterly meetings, and the self-supporting churches are fully in the hands of the Japanese church and function under the Discipline and conference similar to our churches in America. The missionary is in charge of all the finances disbursed by the Missionary Board, and it is his prerogative to see that the work supported by the Board is properly carried on. It is inspiring to see missionaries and district elders, self-supporting and mission churches, all working together in perfect harmony. The Bible school is a strong factor in our work. The student body is above the average as compared with other such schools. The work being done can not be commended too highly. For several years we have desired to establish a kindergarten in connection with our school work. Believing the time had come for action, our leaders were called together and a committee on kindergarten work was appointed. Funds were provided, a building erected, teachers secured and a school was opened in September. The kindergarten will accommodate sixty children and will be entirely self-supporting. The future for our work in Japan is bright. Our missionaries and the Japanese preachers and workers are seeing success. The Lord is honoring their faith and blessing their efforts.

CHINA

On my arrival in Shanghai I was met by Rev. E. P. Ashcraft, the superintendent of our China Mission. Early on Monday morning, March 25, we took the train for Kaifeng City, four hundred miles distant, where we arrived the next afternoon and were met by the missionaries. Two days were spent in preparing a Constitution for the Mission Conference which was to be organized. As soon as the Constitution had been adopted by the Mission it was translated and put into the hands of the Chinese preachers.

On Friday morning the missionaries returned to their various stations and immediately called society meetings and elected delegates to the conference. At that time I began a three weeks' itinerary which took me over our entire China field, Touring in China is very different from touring in Japan. In Japan we travel by autos and electric cars. In China the journey is made by rickashaws or Chinese two-wheeled, springless, seatless carts. Superintendent Ashcraft, James H. Taylor, who was my interpreter, and the missionary in charge of the station where we were touring, were my companions. As the outstations were visited we met many of our Chinese Christians. Couriers were sent on ahead and the people were informed of our coming and great crowds assembled. I spoke briefly to them at each point. At these out-stations careful surveys were made. The work being done, the money spent, the results attained, the territory to be covered in connection with each out-station, the property interests, the efficiency or lack of efficiency of the Chinese pastors. and the ever-present question of properly manning new openings were some of the questions which were considered. At one out-station a new church was ready for dedication, and the congregation of Free Methodist Chinese people that assembled on a week-day for this dedication was surprizingly large. The church had been erected by the Chinese, with some assistance from the Board. The new church just completed at the Jungtseh mission station was dedicated on Sunday, April 7. A week was given to Kihsien and its out-stations. Here is a great, unworked territory which we must evangelize. There are hundreds of villages and many walled cities in our field, in which the Gospel has never been preached. It is estimated that in this territory a million people are living who have not yet heard the Gospel Message. As we traveled through the country my soul was greatly moved as we came in contact with the people and the statement in Matthew 9:36-38 was applied with great force, where we read that when Jesus saw the multitudes, "He was moved with compassion for them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith He unto His disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His harvest."

At present, including those who have just returned to the field, we have twenty-two missionaries in China—five married couples, eleven single women and one single man. We have established six mission stations. Rev. and Mrs. Schlosser are in charge at Jungtseh, Rev. and Mrs. Silva at Chengchow, Miss Edith Frances Jones at the Kaifeng City compound, Rev. and Mrs. Taylor at the school compound at Kaifeng City, Rev. I. S. W. Ryding at Chenliu, and Rev. and Mrs. Schaffer at Kihsien. Rev. and Mrs. Ashcraft are located at the Bible school compound. Brother Ashcraft is not only superintendent, or district elder, over the entire field, but is also president of the Bible school. The single women who work as nurses, teachers and preachers and who are in charge of the woman's work and direct the activities of the Bible women, are distributed over the field as follows: At Jungtseh Miss Peterson and Miss Grace Murray are at work. Miss Murray has a dispensary in this compound. Miss Reid and Miss Sayre are located at Chengchow. At Kaifeng City Miss Florence Murray is associated with Miss Jones. Miss Murray has charge of the orphanage and assists in the woman's work. Miss Wood and Miss Somerville have their headquarters at the school compound, while Miss Chandler labors almost exclusively on the Chenliu District. Miss Leininger and Miss Edwards are laboring in the bounds of the Kihsien District. They live in the new house that was erected last year at Kihsien, but spend most of their time at the out-stations on the district.

Without exception, our China missionaries are thoroughly in love with The troubles of the past three years have been very trying on their work. At times the opposition manifested against Christianity and the foreigner, principally by the student classes and the Bolsheviks, has been in-The Chinese preachers, who were left alone with their problems after the missionaries were obliged to evacuate, faced most difficult conditions, They were often looked upon as unworthy to live because of being identified with the foreigner and the foreign religion. Less than two years have passed since these conditions prevailed and the change which has taken place is so great that one wonders how so much could have been accomplished in so short a time. Order has been brought out of confusion, the mission properties have been cleaned and repaired, churches and other buildings which were in the process of erection have been completed, our compounds have been greatly improved and the general appearance of thrift and prosperity prevails. But by The confar the greatest work which has been done is along spiritual lines. gregations are large and the common people have a greater desire to hear the Gospel than before the trouble occurred. Our Chinese preachers, with but one or two exceptions, have stood true to God and the church. They are a noble company of intelligent, spiritual, self-sacrificing men.

On Wednesday, April 17, we all assembled at the school compound at Kaifeng City for the opening session of the Provisional Conference. The membership of the conference included eighteen missionaries, seventeen Chinese preachers (including two Chinese women) and fifteen Chinese delegates. From first to last during the conference week the blessing of the Lord rested upon us in a remarkable manner, but Sunday was the "great day of the feast." love-feast, which fairly bubbled over with joy and praise and hallelujahs, the ordination service, the first ever witnessed by the Chinese, the morning message which was interpreted by James Taylor, who had much of the help of the Holy Spirit, an altar service conducted by Superintendent Ashcraft, to which many responded, filled the forenoon. The place seemed surcharged with divine power. It was a time never to be forgotten by those who were present. In the afternoon a very precious sacramental service was conducted by Superintendent Ashcraft, at which time the twelve newly ordained deacons assisted. This was followed by preaching by one of the Chinese preachers. Another great service was held in the evening, when James Taylor preached and conducted an altar service. At a late hour, amidst the shouts of the saints, the benediction was pronounced and the first China Annual Conference was ended. It is generally believed by the missionaries and the Chinese leaders that the organization of the conference will give strength and stability to our work in that country. We are expecting a great advance movement along evangelistic lines. The harvest is ripe and there are many open doors.

On Monday, April 22, the annual missionaries' meeting was held. On Tuesday morning the missionaries assembled for a closing religious service. After a short message by the Missionary Secretary, there was a general testimony meeting. At this service heaven and earth came together. All hearts were melted and shouts of victory filled the place. Oh, how good the Lord was to seal the work we had all been endeavoring to do for Him with such a glorious manifestation of His presence! On that same Tuesday afternoon, about two o'clock, I bade the missionaries farewell and took the train for Shanghai, having spent exactly four weeks on the China field.

SOUTH AFRICA

There have been ten missionaries laboring on the South Africa field since the return of Dr. and Mrs. Backenstoe. Rev. J. W. Haley is in charge of the work as district elder and superintendent and he is also in charge of the Bible school at Edwaleni and has general supervision of the Fair View church and farm. Three of our single women, Miss Hartman, Miss Nickel and Miss Allen, have charge of large circuits, each circuit embracing a station, together with out-stations. Each of these women is also in charge of a number of day schools and has the oversight of several evangelists. Miss Frederick is in charge of the girls' school at Fair View, where she has been laboring for several years with good success. Dr. and Mrs. Backenstoe were given a cordial reception on their return last spring and according to the reports received were fairly overwhelmed with work almost immediately.

As the time had come for the furlough of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Rice, it became necessary to send some one to carry on the Edwaleni Industrial School. This school has greatly developed during the past few years and is now an important factor in our South Africa work. After carefully considering the needs of the field and the qualifications of the available candidates, the directors chose Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Adamson, who were sent out in company with Dr. and Mrs. Backenstoe, and are now in charge of the school while Brother and Sister Rice are in America.

We have had a very prosperous year in South Africa. Perfect harmony is prevailing, conversions have been frequent and an increase of seventy-six is reported in the membership.

PORTUGUESE EAST AFRICA AND THE TRANSVAAL

At present we have nine missionaries in Portuguese East Africa and two in the Transvaal. Rev. and Mrs. Jules Ryff live in Germiston and Brother Ryff is carrying on the work among the men in the mines the same as he has been doing for the past twenty-five years. Seven missionaries are living at Inhamachafo. Rev. and Mrs. Jacobs live in the farm house and Mr. Jacobs has charge of the work at the present time, not only on his own district, but also on the northern districts as well. During the year a house has been built for Mr. and Mrs. Arksey and a school building for the men's boarding school. This is the school for which all have been praying for many years. It was opened by Brother Arksey with a full attendance in September. Miss Armstrong and Miss Latshaw opened the girls' school last month also. Mrs. Gaudin, our trained nurse, has a dispensary here on the Inhamachafo farm. Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Haley, who have recently returned on furlough, have been living at Mabili, near Inhambane. Brother Haley has been in charge of the northern district. Rev. and Mrs. Roushey are now living in the mission house at Mabili and Brother Roushey is in charge of the Mabili circuit. The thirteen thousand acre farm, seventy miles north of Inhambane, has been purchased. The missionaries all rejoice over this as though it were a direct gift from heaven.

The work, spiritually, seems to be going forward as usual. Our native preachers are a noble group of men, who are ready to sacrifice and suffer for the cause. In their reports the missionaries speak of them in the highest terms. One of the remarkable things about them is that in a land where sensuality abounds and vice is so common we have had almost no moral failures among them. The missionaries are calling for a doctor. They say that one must be sent if it is at all possible. Although there is great opposition at the present time to all Protestant missionary work, yet the missionaries are full of hope for the future. They believe that God will give another victory. We have seen many dark days in connection with this Inhambane field during the past forty years, but glorious victories have always followed these times of severe testing and the missionaries believe it will be so in this case. We must not lose sight of the fact that "God is still on the throne," directing human affairs in the interests of His kingdom.

INDIA

The reports which have come from India recently have been encouraging. They show a state of progress in all the activities carried on by the mission. At the present time we have thirteen missionaries, three married couples and seven single women, laboring in that country. Rev. and Mrs. Davis. Rev. and Mrs. Puffer and Miss Elizabeth Moreland are in Yeotmal. Brother Davis is in charge of the Bible school and is pastor of the Yeotmal church. The problems and difficulties in connection with the school and the church work are many, but Brother Davis seems to be master of the situation, and the work is prospering under his administration. Mrs. Davis devotes her time to women's work and supervises the activities of the Bible women. Brother and Sister Puffer have charge of the boys' boarding school and two or three other schools which we are operating in and near Yeotmal. Brother Puffer is also in charge of the industrial work which has been undertaken for the benefit of our Christian community. For a number of years we have been putting forth an effort to secure land upon which we could locate some of our Christian people and thus help them to become self-supporting. Recently a tract of a little more than one hundred acres has been purchased. Brother Puffer writes: "The land is in a village located centrally between four other villages. We can have an evangelist and a school there and make, from the first, a good effort to evangelize these villages," This land is being paid for entirely outside of Board appropriations by friends who are interested in India. Mrs. Puffer has been seriously ill but seems now to have fully recovered and we have great reason to give thanks to God for answering prayer. She is a strong, spiritual aid to her husband in the management of the boys' school and is specializing in Sunday-school work. Miss Moreland has been busily engaged in various activities. She is secretary and treasurer of the mission, assists in the Bible school, is active in the literature department and gives assistance in evangelistic work.

At Darwha, Misses Ward and Alcorn are in charge. They are active and enthusiastic in their work. Holding evangelistic services, superintending Sunday-schools, supervising day schools, running a dispensary and doing personal work among the people keep them busy. There are four missionaries at Umbri. Rev. and Mrs. Thuline, who are living in the mission house, have charge of the religious services and are doing intensive evangelistic work in the nearby villages. A sidelight on their activities is reflected in the report where we read, "Rev. and Mrs. Thuline and family took a band of Indian workers and tented for a month at Bori, a large town eighteen miles south of Umbri. Thuline and the workers also tented a month at Thatanii." From the tent as headquarters the month is spent touring among the villages of the district. Mrs. Thuline is a strong support to her husband in evangelistic work. hospital and the girls' school are located at Umbri. Miss Phelps, one of our trained nurses, is in charge of our dispensary at the hospital. She is also greatly interested in evangelistic work and has a plan in mind whereby she hopes to tour among the people in the near-by villages, preaching the Gospel and looking after their physical ailments. This and all other such plans spring from hearts burdened because of the wretched and almost hopeless condition of the common people. The girls' school, composed of about one hundred pupils, is in charge of Miss Santee. She has able Indian assistants and the reports show real efficiency in the management of the school. The government inspectors, who conducted the examinations, commended the "interest, diligence and efficiency of the teaching staff." Regular Bible teaching is carried on in all departments and the spiritual results have been encouraging. The station at Wun is in charge of Miss Southworth, who is ministering to the spiritual and physical needs of a large number of people in that city, and the country adjacent. During the past this has been a very difficult field to work, but Miss Southworth is full of courage and is seeing some fruit as a result of her labors. Miss Menter, one of our trained nurses, recently returned to the field with Miss Alcorn, but we are not certain at which station she will be lo-She is looking forward with great delight to this term of service for the Master in India.

There is no place where we are laboring which presents such a challenge to our faith as does India, and the missionaries there undoubtedly face greater discouragements than are faced on our other fields. Let us keep India on our prayer list and give our hearty support to these courageous people in that faraway country.

THE DOMINICAN REPURLIC

This has been a year of unusual trial in the Dominican Republic. Again the death angel has appeared among us and in this case he took one of our very best and most faithful missionaries, Rev. J. W. Winans, whose home was with his brother at Canfield, Ontario, Canada. For many years Brother Winans has given himself unsparingly to the work in this Republic and he will be greatly missed. At present there are five missionaries on the field and three home on furlough. Rev. and Mrs. Mills live at San Francisco de Macoris. Mr. Mills is the superintendent of the entire work. He holds the quarterly meetings and supervises the work in general. Rev. and Mrs. Johnson live at Santiago and are in charge of the school there. Miss Abrams has recently been appointed to the Pimentel circuit. Miss Nellie and Miss Eva Whiffen are stationed at Santiago, Miss Nellie being pastor of the Santiago church and Miss Eva holding an important position in the school. Miss Ragatz (now on furlough) has, for two years, been stationed at Santiago and has assisted in the school work. Miss Rachel Smiley, whom the directors have just sent out, will assist this year in the work of the school. The new church building in Santiago is completed and the reports indicate that the spiritual work of the church is in good condition. The development of our native ministry has made it possible for us to occupy the leading cities in our field. The Lord has given us some very promising men and women who are in charge of our churches. Our work started on this island in 1889 and it required nineteen years of hard work before the first Free Methodist society was organized. Thirteen years later, in 1921; when we made our first visit to this island, we found only three native preachers at work. At the present time there are twenty-seven native evangelists and pastors and thirty-nine out-stations. During the last few years our property interests have greatly increased. Seven years ago our school property and our churches were valued at $9.480.00 At the present time our buildings and furnishings, together with the land, are valued at $46,950,00. We thank God for all He is doing for us in this Republic.

MOVEMENTS OF MISSIONARIES

We now have seventy missionaries on the field. This does not include those who have recently returned to this country on furlough, but it includes those who have been sent out to the field this summer and fall. During the year eleven missionaries have been brought home on furlough, twelve have been returned to the field, three new missionaries have been sent out, and two sent to Panama. In all, during the past year, twenty-eight missionaries and fifteen children of missionaries, many of whom are of an age to require full fare, have either crossed the ocean or made long ocean trips to get to their field.

CONCLUSION

Our missionary aim is not the development of higher education or western civilization, or the expansion of commerce, although these to a greater or less extent may follow the trail blazed by the missionary; our aim is, rather, spiritual enlightenment and the salvation of the people among whom we labor. Writing to the Thessalonians, Paul gave thanks and rejoiced because they had "turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God." This was his missionary aim and this, I believe, has been and is the one great aim of the Free Methodist Church in its missionary enterprise, and we have reason to be thankful and rejoice because of the results we are seeing. In some countries where we are at work, for the people to renounce idol worship and bring their household gods to the missionaries is a common occurrence. Our commission is to give the Gospel to the world and the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation. In the midst of the modernistic and liberal theology now current in many places and which is causing great confusion on the mission field, we thank God that the Free Methodist Church is standing true to its original principles and that the work we are doing is, without exception, a distinctively spiritual and holiness work. In this we have great cause for rejoicing.

HOME MISSIONS

In Southern California our work among the Mexicans and Japanese is still developing. We now have nine Mexican missions in the bounds of the Southern California Conference and work is being done at three points in the California Conference. There has been an increase in membership this year of sixty-six, making a total of 293, including probationers. The Japanese missions are in a healthy condition. There are three organized churches and Sunday-schools, and religious services are being held at three other points. The importance of self-support is being emphasized and both the Mexican and Japanese missions are making steady advancement along that line. Our property interests are constantly increasing.

Our other home missionary interests are in Panama and the Canal Zone, among the mountaineers in Breathitt County, Kentucky, among the Italians in Melrose Park, Illinois, and in Vancouver, British Columbia, among the Japanese. We are also assisting the Colorado Conference in a work among the Indians in New Mexico, and the Minnesota and Northern Iowa Conference in a Mexican mission in Mason City, Iowa,

REPORT OF FIELD SECRETARY

TO THE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL MISSIONARY BOARD:

My report to you at this time is with a deep sense of my dependence upon God and with heartfelt gratitude to Him for His care and preservation during the year. I have sought to serve as would be pleasing to my Lord and hope as the years pass it shall be with more of the mind that was in Him. No doubt many mistakes have been made and we are sure more and more time must be spent in prayer relative to our work. In all the conferences visited wife and I have had the most cordial welcome and hearty cooperation in our work. She has accompanied me a part of the year and seemed to be especially blessed in assisting in missionary meetings and in prayer and exhortation in the revival services. I have assisted in a few ten-day services and one camp meeting in which we were permitted to see a number saved or sanctified, but the number was so much less than we hoped and desired, we felt to cry as never for greater power with God and men.

The year has been one of constant labor, holding an average of five services per week in the interest of missions and the home work, making it necessary to travel some over 30,485 miles. I have dedicated two churches and raised funds to clear the debt on two others, supplied three conferences, and attended nine others in the interest of missions and the Publishing House. After much prayer in the matter I decided to take all offerings and subscriptions for our missionary work in a voluntary manner, having the congregation come forward and give or subscribe as they felt God would have them. The melting of the Holy Spirit has been very manifest in many of the services. have received more from those outside the church than in former years. There has been given in the various services held and by persons, from September 9, 1928, to September 8, 1929, in cash, $8,350.00; in subscriptions, not including pledges for the support of nearly fifty native workers and one missionary, $10,050.00 and on the annuity plan $4,700.00, a total of $23,105.00. plied calls for the home work seem to make it more difficult each year to realize funds for our missionary work. My expenses for the year have amounted to $438.86, or $50.00 less than last year, though I have traveled 10,000 miles more in my work. Sufficient funds have been given for assisting in meetings and handed me personally to pay all expenses and a surplus of $200.00 which I have paid over to the treasurer with a detailed account of all moneys received and how expended.

The care of God in our behalf has been very manifest, having traveled thousands of miles with a car as well as by train from coast to coast. We ask your forbearance and prayers and will be glad to receive any instruction that may enable us to serve more efficiently in His vineyard.

MEETING OF THE W M. S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The twenty-sixth annual meeting of the Executive Committee was held at its headquarters in the Publishing House, Chicago, Illinois, October 14-18, 1929, all members being present. Mrs. Carrie, T. Burritt, the president, ably presided, relieved occasionally by the first vice-president, Mrs. Clara R. Freeland. During the three and a half days, every phase of the work received careful consideration through reports and plans. There was thanksgiving over the year's general good record; the gains in many departments; the cordial observance of Self-denial Week so that receipts grew from $1.600 in 1928 to $10,000 in 1929; the enthusiastic and loyal response to the Quota, so that, again, after an interval of several years, we passed the $150,000 mark in our missionary giving; the better financial position of the Missionary Tidings; the general observance of the World Day of Prayer; the growing interest in missionary reading and study. There were multiplied causes for rejoicing. New plans were made with confidence. The Spirit was present, giving assurance HELEN I. ROOT. Corresponding Secretary. of continued victory.

Y. P. M. S. REPORT

Three new conference organizations were effected during the past year-Columbia River, North Michigan, Georgia and Florida. This leaves only four unorganized. Thirteen conferences reported from one to six standard societies, a gain over last year.

Most of the conference reports are encouraging. Michigan had the largest gain in membership-141, and Southern California next with 126. Our total membership is 6,283, a gain of 96 over last year, and the number of societies is 409, a gain of 4 over last year. Total amount of money raised, $25,296.89. Best of all, God's blessing has rested upon our efforts and souls have been saved. EMMA L. HOGUE. Supt.

HOME MISSIONS

Through the placing of many libraries in local churches, through reading campaigns and through schools of stewardship Christian stewardship education has been greatly augmented.

As a natural result the devotional life has been deepened, prayer circles have multiplied and Jesus is being lifted up through a revival of simple daily witnessing, through tract distribution and through visitation.

The total amount raised for Home Missions was $20,963.95, a gain of $1,219.86 over the previous year.

The Gold Star conferences, those having raised at least a dollar a member for Home Missions, general, are: Alberta, Central Illinois, East Texas, Genesee, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky and Tennessee, Oil City, South Dakota, Southern California, Susquehanna, Texas, Wabash, Washington, Wisconsin.

The Silver Star conferences, those having raised a dollar a member thank-offering, are: Louisiana, Minnesota and Northern Iowa, Nebraska, Texas.

The Blue Star conferences, those taking first rank in a particular item, are: Oil City, Pittsburgh, Southern California, Susquehanna, Iowa, Georgia and Florida.

The most satisfying gains are those of 1,120 tithers, 26,298 tracts and gospels distributed, 5,310 visits.

An increasing number of local societies are extending their ministry to all within reach regardless of belief or color or nationality.

LILLIAN B. GRIFFITH, Home Mission Secretary.

JUNIOR REPORT

This army of boys and girls nearly ten thousand strong as represented by the Junior Missionary Society, together with their leaders, has been far from idle during the past year. The visible gains, though not glowing, have been real and the invisible advancements which can not be measured on report blanks we believe have been greater.

Twenty conferences report a gain in societies: Oil City, California, East Ontario, Illinois, Kansas, Kentucky and Tennessee, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas, West Ontario, Wisconsin, East Michigan, Genesee, Georgia and Florida, Louisiana, North Indiana, Ohio, Southern California, West Kansas.

Twenty-two conferences report a gain in membership: Ohio, Colorado, Kansas, East Ontario, California, West Ontario, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Wabash, East Michigan, Missouri, North Indiana, Wisconsin, Texas, Platte River, Illinois, Georgia and Florida, North Minnesota, Oregon, Iowa, Oil City, Kentucky and Tennessee.

The total number of societies reported is 526 with a membership of 10,161. These totals vary only a little from those of last year. There was a material gain in the amount of money raised, $8,255.63, being an increase of $1,600,00.

For all the Lord has accomplished through this organization we humbly thank Him and pray that during the year to come our every effort may bear the trace of His divine hand.

EDNA MCCARTY.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

This report is inevitably one on "the state of the work" for however other officers may show the progress of the several departments here we find the bird's eye view of the whole situation that appears nowhere else. Hence the necessity for faithful reporting from every local to the district organization, from every district to the conference and from every conference to this office. In the main the work is well done. There are a few too modest souls who suppose their contributions to the general record will not matter. But it does. We watch the returns from the conferences almost as eagerly as those from a presidential election and every one counts.

Let us consider some points of progress—remembering by the way the implied but unmentioned losses in the conferences not listed here. There are more local W. M. Societies than last year in sixteen of the conferences: Alberta, Arkansas and Southern Missouri, East Michigan, East Ontario, Genesee, Illinois, Iowa, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota and Northern Iowa, Missouri, New York, North Michigan, Ohio, Platte River, Wabash.

2. There are more active members in fifteen conferences: Alberta, East Michigan, Genesee, Iowa, North Michigan, Ohio, Wabash of above list and besides these, California, Central Illinois, East Texas, Kansas, Nebraska, West Kansas, Oil City.

3. There are more honorary members in fifteen conferences: Alberta, Arkansas and Southern Missouri, Central Illinois, Genesee, Louisiana, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Michigan, Ohio, Oil City, West Kansas among those already named and in addition, Colorado, Kentucky and Tennessee, Pittsburgh, North Dakota, Southern California.

4. Including all classes of membership, active, honorary, life, Y. P. M. S., and Juniors, twenty-four conferences show an increase. The accompanying statistical table, if compared with that of last year, will show all these and will reward careful study.

5. There are thirty-two standard societies reported from fourteen conferences as against twelve from six conferences last year. This item is receiving better attention and needs it in order that the work may advance in all lines, every one of which is important.

6. Three Blue Banners are to be given this year to conferences in which no loss is shown in any point, with gains of course in some. These are about as widely separated as well could be and represent widely differing conditions and all deserve recognition for really fine work. A Blue Banner can not be won without it. It is presented to Alberta, Louisiana, and Oil City. We hope to present at least a dozen next year. Several conferences fell short in one point or two but, knowing where the work needs to be strengthened, they will be heard from in 1930.

On the whole it has been a good year and we are thankful not only for the blessing of God but for the ways in which it came to us, in the hearty cooperation of the ministers and laymen with the missionary plans, in the loyal support of our membership, in the hard, effective work of our officers from local to general, in the courage which came from united prayer. It is a goodly fellowship in a great work.

Helen I. Root.

The following conference societies came up to their Quota: Alberta, East Ontario, Genesee, Kansas, Louisiana, North Michigan, Oil City, Oklahoma, Oregon, Southern California, Susquehanna, Washington, West Iowa, West Kansas. West Ontario, Wisconsin. A number of the other conferences came near the goal and deserve much credit for the splendid record they made. Surely such faithful service as has been given by our beloved treasurers is an example to all missionary officers.

LILLIAN CAMP JENSEN, General Treasurer.
